“The principles of justice are chosen behind a veil of ignorance.”

John Rawls
A Theory of Justice
Veil of Ignorance

- How can the veil of ignorance help us evaluate the ‘rules’ of society?
- How does the veil of ignorance help us avoid our personal biases when testing the rules of society?
The Real World

• Does the real world look like the ‘rules’ were made from behind a veil of ignorance? Why?
• What unfair rules exist in society today?
Social Justice
Social Justice

Fair Access

What does fair access mean?
Fair Access

Fair access means that everyone is able to obtain the resources, opportunities, and rights they need to live in dignity.

Fair access means equitable access
Envisioning Justice

• What would a world that operates according to the definition of social justice look like?
• What would change?
• What would stay the same?
Envisioning Justice

• What themes did you notice in your visions of justice?
• What would need to change for society to achieve your vision?
• Why is it important to think seriously about what a just world would look like?
